The new members of the Board will be elected in June of this year.

Dear Alumni:

Your editor has again reminded me that a new issue of your Bulletin will soon be sent out to you and that perhaps some statement from me would be permitted to occupy a few columns of space therein. I am very happy, indeed, to send you a word or two of greeting and to bring you somewhat up to date on the happenings at the school. I will address myself especially to those of you who are at a distance and so do not have an opportunity to learn firsthand of what is happening on the grounds.

In the first place, I want to point with pride to the fact that we now have twenty-three sons or daughters of former members of the school enrolled as members of the school. A list of these pupils with the names of their parents will be found elsewhere in this issue. It is great fun to have your children in our classes and to have them remind us of their parents' behavior from time to time. Sometimes the reminder is not exactly that which I remember about their progenitors when they were here, but in any event they are all a vigorous and colorful lot.

There are now sixteen members of the alumni body who are in the teaching profession. Three of them are holding places on our staff at the school and are doing unusually able and distinctive work in their departments. Esther Buchen Pese has succeeded to the chair of Latin left vacant by Mrs. Childs' retirement and has done brilliant teaching for several years. Virginia Deane is teaching history and English and has distinguished herself as homeroom teacher for the tenth grade girls, always a task which requires great tact and sound judgment. Dave Howe is now House Master at Leicester and teacher of English, as well as assisting in the administration. He and his wife are making Leicester Hall a charming home for the six or eight boys who come from away. This arrangement seems to be working out exceedingly well, so if any of you know of any boys of high school age who might be interested in coming here, please put them in touch with us. It is a great pleasure as well as a great benefit to the school to have so many of its former students coming back into it to strengthen it and bring us new and stimulating ideas.

We instituted a new policy in athletics this fall by taking an over-night trip to Detroit to play the Detroit University School in football and the Grosse Pointe Country Day School in field hockey. Doc and Mrs. Anderson chaperoned the trip and several other faculty members and I went along. We had a whole day-coach to ourselves both ways and stayed in the homes of the various Detroit families over night when we got there. Although we lost the football game by one touchdown and tied the hockey game 3 to 3, everyone agreed that the experience of meeting contemporaries from another city and of taking a long trip together as a group was not only great fun but a delightful and broadening experience as well. Later on in the season we played the St. Louis Country Day team and put them up in our homes over night. We had better luck in this game and beat them 25 to 7. After the game the Juniors gave a dance for our guests. Next year we expect to go to St. Louis to give them a chance to get revenge on us in return, as Detroit University School will come to us. These out-of-town games have proven to be a much better and pleasanter experience for our boys than most of the games in the old Private School League; — except those with Latin and Parker, whom we are continuing to play outside of the League anyway.

It has been a great pleasure to welcome Doc Anderson back on duty after his sabbatical leave of last year. He is in wonderful form and took active charge of coaching the varsity football team this fall, which largely accounts for its success and certainly for its fun. I never saw boys enjoy a season more, nor show better spirit. Jackie Anderson was one of the stars and was probably the most consistent line plunger in the backfield. I know how much the alumni will share with Doc in the pleasure it gave him to have Jackie turn out to be a true chip off the old block. Doc's greatest enjoyment on his leave seems to have been his visits to various of the alumni. Probably the high spot was his visit to Hotchkiss where Bill Fowle is Director of Athletics. Doc got a great glow of pride in seeing how well his pupil is doing there, for that is one of the greatest and most lasting satisfactions in teaching. I hope more of you will try it and see.

Our Graduate Teachers College of Winnetka is still turning out teachers. It, too, is really an alumnus of our school and many of our graduates have attended it. Although the lack of teachers in most fields is astounding, I am glad to be able to report that our staff is entirely complete and with stronger personalities than ever before. I feel happier about the condition of the school than at any time since before the war. Whenever you are in town, be sure to drop in to visit us. You will find a most hearty welcome awaiting you.

The best of luck to you all.

In an effort to carry through our plan of introducing a series of articles concerning the principal organizations within the school, Mr. Philip W. Moore has been kind enough to write to us about the functions and activities of the Foundation. We are especially grateful to Mr. Moore because very few of us have explicit ideas about the "why and wherefore" of the Foundation.

Dear Alumni:

The North Shore Country Day School was organized in 1919. Three or four years later, when it was evident that the School was filling a real need, it was incorporated under the Illinois statute as a corporation not for profit. At that time some $250,000 was raised by the sale of debentures, the property and buildings were purchased, Dunlap was built and the School was put on a basis much the same as obtains today.

The organizers of the School having in mind that sometime through some unhappy circumstance it might cease to function as such, provided that in such case the property should pass to a charitable organization rather than to those who by accident might at that time be members of the corporation. This charitable organization was named the North Shore Country Day School Foundation and it was provided that the trustees of the Foundation should administer the property in trust for the benefit of the residents of the Village of Winnetka and the North Shore generally. The functions of the Foundation then were, very briefly, to insure that no individuals should profit through the dissolution of the School and the liquidation of its property and also to act, separate and distinct from the organization of the North Shore Country Day School, to receive funds for general endowment. In the first ten or twelve years of the School's existence much stress was laid upon the accumulation of an endowment fund and the Foundation received numerous gifts for that purpose. None of them were especially large and today their total is a modest one. The income from this fund is used to meet unusual situations that may arise. These have been found mostly in the need for aid to members of the staff in emergencies, sometimes in the form of loans that are later repaid, more frequently as outright gifts. Each year for some years past the Foundation has contributed to the School income by financing scholarships. In the past ten years a considerable part of the Foundation's funds have been used to aid the School in meeting some of its financial problems.

In addition to its general endowment fund, the Foundation has custody of the following special funds —

F. Goddard Cheney Scholarship Fund — which contributes annually toward a scholarship in the School.

Lawrence Howe Fund — which may be used for general purposes and frequently is used to provide aid for some members of the staff.

Bronze Tablet Fund — income from which may be used for such purposes as the trustees may approve.

Juliet Preston Kumler Memorial Fund — proceeds from this are used entirely for the library.

War Memorial Fund — established in part as a memorial to certain specific students who lost their lives in the war and in part as a general fund to provide in the first instance for scholarships for children of former graduates of the School who were in service in World War II.

Shep Marsh Fund — to be used for general purposes, preferably assistance to members of the staff.

Harriet Patricia Plotkin Fund — both principal and income have been used to purchase pictures for the Art Department.

The affairs of the Foundation are administered by five trustees who hold office indefinitely. The present incumbents are Messrs. T. Kenneth Boyd, J. F. Dammann, Foster Hannaford, Philip W. Moore and Perry Dunlap Smith.

Sincerely,

PHILIP W. MOORE

Dear Alumni:

Back in 1938, the year that watched an umbrella lead a deluded Neville

Chamberlain home to London from a world-shattering conference at Munich, the school seemed to me as I first looked at it to be tangling courageously with social and educational problems. This last fall for the tenth time I listened at the opening Morning Ex while the seniors suggested to the student body that another year of opportunities lay before them, that student led activities required responsible participation, that council, library, football, hockey, Purp, and Mirror would again be centers of group plan and purpose. And I wondered whether we were stuck in a rut, or whether we were facing in a limited environment age old problems of the world.

If the walls of the buildings could throw back the sound which has for these years been cast at them, much of it would be just sound. For trivia has and does mark parts of all our living. One too many or one too few in the eleven o'clock basket of buns may now, as in the past, be a source of violent friction. But mixed with this has been the stuff of knowledge; little bits about verbs and nouns, initiation to the mystery of a ratio, electro-magnets created out of bell wire and a nail, stories of an ancient tyrant who built a thing of beauty on a Mediterranean hill. These in their time lead on to thoughts on Milton's concept of a deity, to discovering matter as energy, to the revelation of a people's temper through understanding of their language, to the proper scope of the powers of a state.

But the "late George Apley" was exposed to no less a share of knowledge and this learning earned him the right to boast of a collection of bronzes which neither he nor the rest of the world cared much about. His schooling helped him not at all to understand the problems of his personal life or of his world.

In the years of the school we are an institution come of age by virtue of the fact that there has been a constant core, a stubborn persistence in the search for a way to share learning with each new class in such a way that this knowledge may grow into later wisdom. Particularly the reverberations from the walls would echo a long list of steps which were taken in a responsible manner. Unchanged for some years is a stage crew responsible for care and operation of a good deal of equipment vital to the whole school, a committee of students responsible for the procuring of all high school study halls, and taking responsibility in a similar way are the Morning Ex Committee, the Girls' Athletic Association, the managers' squads, the committees for production of the opera, care of the library, production of the vaudeville. While the old time fall festival suffered a pathology which ended in death new opportunities appear as in the European Friendship Exchange.

As the world knows from recent experiences with dictatorship we cannot allow irresponsible strength to go unchecked. In schools we cannot allow irresponsibility, weak or strong, individual or group, to pass without censure. As the world has not yet found a way to curb the aggressions of greed without by the same machinery impairing seriously the legitimate ends of nations, neither have we at school been able to know clearly the degree to which errors in student judgement must be countermanded by faculty edict. We have been guided by the conviction, and I think justifiably, that an education in a responsible society is more productive of individual happiness and group wellbeing than one in which an authority dictates. In this sense we have taken a stand on one of the oldest problems of the world, and yet the ridges of our rut obscure the final solution and the final effect of our stand.

Sincerely,

NAT FRENCH

Dear Editor :

As the late Mr. Runyon would say, I am more flattered than somewhat to be asked to contribute to The Bulletin. As some of your readers know, a couple of years ago I attended the Graduate Teachers College and am now bitterly engaged in the classroom battle. Some day I hope to be on the North Shore campus again, but unfortunately that time appears still to be beyond reach. In the meantime Dee, my wife of a year and a half, and I are pleasantly situated in Kansas City, Missouri.

The life we lead is seldom a dull one. Unlike most young couples we had no trouble finding a place to live. The Pembroke Country Day School furnished us with two rooms and a bath, complete with essential furniture and between thirty and forty boys. Fortunately they have rooms of their own.

Excepting the usual minority, the boys are a good lot, and life is still worthwhile. There have been a few times in my short teaching experience, however, when I have not been so sure of this. I can remember one night last year when all H. . . broke loose. The other men in the dormitory were out to a meeting of some sort, and I was so new that I'm afraid some of our "young men" still thought I was an upper classman. At any rate, we had a general free-for-all, and I might just as well have stayed on the side lines for all the good I was. Pillows were flying through the air, doors were slamming, and in every room there was at least one collapsed bed. At one stage of the battle a curly-headed lad saw me, wound up, took another look, and backed away with an "Oh, excuse me, Sir." Not infrequently fathers have walked up; wrung my hand and said, "Hi there, young fella. Haven't seen you in a long time." Others merely want to know what class I'm in.

At other times teaching actually seems to be productive. Having gone through one year of classes, I am finding the work a little lighter, and there seems to be more time for extra-curricular activities. One of the things I have been "doing" has been Gilbert and Sullivan. Last year Miss Radcliff and I worked together on The Pirates, and I hope that this year we will be able to put on The Gondoliers. I used to enjoy no end working on the opera at N.S.C.D.S., but I think it's even more fun to direct. In this position I get to play all the leads.

And now I'll wind this up. Many of you probably know that Joe and Dale dePeyster and Liz Price are all here in K. C. We would all like to hear from any of you.

Sincerely,

GEORGE "MOUSE" ELDREDGE

These industrious scenes of activity are the result of what is usually known as Work Day at North Shore. And from a mere spectators point of view, it certainly looks as though the entire student body and all of the faculty had attacked the campus with a vengeance! After much diligent painting, pruning, raking of leaves, and a bit of occasional chit-chat with one's fellow-laborers, the site of N.S.C.D.S. fairly sparkled by the end of the day.

Judging by the cover of this Bulletin, our Headmaster certainly picked himself a job! Do you suppose he chopped it all himself?

Dear Alumni:

The Duff family's visit to Britain during the summer of 1947 was so full of reunions, adventures, and new experiences of all sorts, that a letter can only sketch in a few of the highlights. Mrs. Duff and I with Deirdre (now 15) and Steven (8) sailed from Montreal on S. S. Cairnvalona, a freighter of some 8,000 tons, bound for Newcastle-on-Tyne. The weather was perfect, the sea was calm, the other six passengers were reasonably congenial and the officers and crew most friendly.

... It was our first visit to Scotland since 1937, and we were prepared to find the elderly relatives very frail and worn after the way they have spent the intervening years. With only one or two exceptions, they are amazingly brisk and cheerful, though much thinner, and my father, aged 85, set such a pace that we could hardly keep up with him. We spent the month of July with my father and sister in a house in the west of Scotland, very handy to the Clyde, where Steven delighted his grandfather by displaying not only unlimited enthusiasm for the Clyde steamers but a surprising knowledge of their history. The beauty of the West Coast scenery made a very sharp contrast with the desolation of the bombed areas along the upper reaches of the river.

At the end of July we went to the South of England. First to Salesbury, where Mrs. Duff and Deirdre stayed with an Aunt, while Steven and I put up at "The Rose and Crown", built in the fifteenth century, with a garden behind leading down to the river, beyond which rose the spire of the Cathedral. The weather was unbelievably fine, and we made expeditions to Stonehenge and other fascinating places. After that we had a week in Dorset, with more side trips, including one to Southampton. Not even London's ruins gave us as great a shock as Southampton's, and I discovered that eyewitness reports and even newsreels had done little to prepare me for the actual sight, and after two years of clearing up.

Our stay in London was short but exciting. The first day included Madame Tussauds' in the morning, the South Kensington Museum of Science and Industry in the afternoon, and in the evening, a memorable performance of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in the Open Air Theatre in Regents' Park. The following day we visited the Tower of London, and took a boat trip down the Thames to Greenwich and back.

We returned to Edinburgh in time for the International Festival of Music and Drama, and if I start describing that, this issue of the BULLETIN will run to several volumes. Here's what was offered over a period of three weeks: The Vienna Philharmonic under Bruno Walter, a French Orchestra, three English and two Scottish orchestras; The Flyndebourne Opera Company in Verdi's "Macbeth" and Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro"; The Sadler's Wells Ballet in Tchaikowsky's "Sleeping Beauty"; the Old Vic Theatre Company in "Richard" and "The Taming of the Shrew"; Le Compagnie Jouvett, with two plays; the Jacques Chamber Orchestra and a galaxy of quartets, trios, choirs and soloists. At one concert we heard the three Brahms Sonatas for violin and piano, played by Szigeti, Schnabel, Primrose, and Fournier. Owing to financial and transportation difficulties, the U. S. was not represented by an orchestra or theatre company, but Eleanor Steber and John Brownlee were in the cast of "Figaro"; and Todd Duncan's recital was a great success. The Festival is to be held again next year, and is likely to become an annual event.

We had expected to meet Mary Randall Gilkey (class of '35) and her husband in Edinburgh, but various complications arose and we were disappointed.

Deirdre, who had been having a whirl all summer, ended her visit in a blaze of excitement by going to the Royal Artillery Ball the night before we left.

We had a glorious time being there in the summer, as visitors. It's a different story for the British. Don't let anybody tell you that nobody over there is really hungry. They're hungry, they're tired after the battering they took during the war, and the privations they've endured since what they refer to as "the outbreak of peace". The diet is inadequate, lacking in variety, lacking in vitamins. Housewives spend hours standing in line for their rations. There are quite a lot of fat people, who grow fat from living almost entirely on bread, tea, and potatoes. But two things are apparent to the visitor, the health of the children, who have been given the best possible care, and the incredible cheerfulness and kindness of everyone to each other as well as to strangers.

By arrangement with a kind and understanding Headmaster, we were able to stay until the end of the Festival. On September 20 we sailed on another freighter, empty this time, and set out in the teeth of the equinoctial gales. We were very unhappy for several days. We arrived in Winnetka after school had been going for two weeks. I have almost caught up.

Best wishes to you all,

RAMSAY DUFF

We would like to introduce another new member to our faculty. Actually an introduction is wholly unnecessary because of the large number of you who already know Dave Howe.

Leicester House
NSCDS
December 1, 1947

Dear Alumni:

I am back at North Shore this year teaching English in the high school, — and I'm glad to be back. I am finding that many things I have held in mind about this school are still here and are still good. They are the kind of thing with which I have harassed fellow teachers at other schools and have seen in operation at other schools rarely or only in part. One of the main ones, and I promise I won't dwell on them all, is the idea that some kids do schoolwork because they are interested in it, and that any kid may at any time blossom out with an interest in parallel lines cut by a transversal or the scansion of iambic pentameter. The importance of the recognition of that idea is that teaching is then aimed at the interest, with the mark to follow it up, rather than the teaching being aimed first, and sometimes solely, at the mark. An adult gets satisfaction, a promotion, or a pay-check; but none of those is comparable to the arithmetic mark awarded at the completion of each job and waved in the face of school children.

Other ideas have to do with school life for a child being living rather than just a preparation, with the fact that a child's activity is an experience for him not a performance for adults, and with the belief that a child belongs in a home and can bring to school a lot of valuable things from that home daily which more than make up for the alleged advantage of having a child under the school's jurisdiction for the full 24 hours.

My wife and I are in charge of Leicester House, the 24 hour supervision for the non-Winnetkan boarders. We have eight now and hope to make room for several more next year. And here is the commercial: you can put the boarding department of NSCDS in the front of your mind and be ready to speak for it when you hear of distraught parents wondering where to send the young man to school. Put them in touch with us and we will supply them with all the arguments for the family-like boarding house with all the advantages of a day school.

And do come around to see us at Leicester.

Yours truly,

NEWS OF THE ALUMNI

Class of 1922

On the side maintain dignity by continuing as Pacific Coast Correspondent of the London Times. Our 2 children, Tom, Jr., and Tyrrell go to school and come home in shifts, thus making 4 trips to school necessary each day. See my brother, Francis Dammann often. He has become the hero of the Long Beach Naval hospital due to some of miraculous cures he's effected. Occasionally see Chuck Haas who has now entered the field of independent picture production.

FISHER HOWE - Attending "National War College", Washington, D. C. which is a joint Army-Airforce-Navy-State institution of higher learning now in its second year. The course lasts from Sept. to June.

SUSAN BADGEROW MAY - New baby daughter, Susan, born Aug. 4th, New York hospital. Busy being a wife and mother.

Class of 1932

JOHN ADAIR - Our second child, Nancy, was born this last May. I have a Social Science Research Council Fellowship for the year and I am doing some research at the pueblo of Zuni in Western New Mexico. I expect to have my Ph.D. in hand this spring. The family is with me in the field and we live quite comfortably in a two room stone house. If any of you should be passing by, do drop in and see us.

JOHN D. CREIGH - First child (a daughter, Elizabeth Tuttle Creigh) born Nov. 11, 1947. Everyone 100%. Getting along fine in our new Kansas set up.

ELEANOR JANNEY HARVEY - Have daughter, Barbara, age two years. Sister, Midge, lives in Locust Valley. Brother, Fred, will assume duties as assistant Naval Attache to Ottawa in February.

JOHN J. P. ODELL - 3 children: Jay, aged 5, Gordon, aged 3, and Margery, aged 1. Dog and cat.

WALLACE D. RUMSEY, JR. - Peter, 7, and Sarah, 4. Working for the Elliott Co. of Jeannette, Pa. Now in the process of building the first gas turbines for use on Navy vessels and U.S. railroads. We were plenty pleased by a surprise visit from Jack Odell last month. Hope others passing thru Pittsburg will drop in, open house any time.

HELEN FULTON SHOCKLEY - Helen (Deedee) Shockley was born Jan. 17, 1947.

Class of 1933

WALTER D. FISHER - Still on Gianini Foundation of Agricultural Economics, U. of California.

MARJORIE KELLY - I am teaching at the Brearley School in New York City, and finding it very interesting. Have seen the Wallings and talked to Jane deP. Van Beurer.

PEGGY SARGENT LITTEN - A son, Chapin II, age 1 1-2 years.

J. DUNHAM REILLY - We don't get off the Naval center very much and would like to see any North Shore friends who are up this way. (Great Lakes, Ill.)

CHEVES WALLING - Just back from a month's trip to England, attending a meeting of the Faraday Society and visiting British Universities. Lunched with the Geoffrey De-Freitas'es (Helen Bell) at the House of Commons. He's now the Parliamentary Undersecretary of State for Air.

Class of 1934

JOSEPHINE ZEISS BROWN - A son, Howard Kirk, III, born in May.

WILLIAM WHEELER DARROW - Third child and second son was born last April — John Straub Darrow.

C. COLTON DAUGHADAY - Provision Dept., Armour & Co., Denver.

BETTY CRILLY FRANK - We have two daughters, Linda 4 1-2 yrs. old, and Barbara Ann born October 20, 1947.

ANNE BURNHAM STRONG - Two children: Jonathan Webster Strong, Jr. age 3 1-2, and Deborah Stokes Strong, age 1.

SCOTSON WEBBE - Living in Northfield. Two children, Lindsay and Dick, 4 1-2 and 3 1-2 respectively. Working in Chicago as advertising solicitor on Ladies Home Journal.

Class of 1935

ROBERT A. ALDRICH, M. D. - Finishing last year of Pediatric training at the U. of Minnesota, and expect to stay in Minneapolis till late '48.

DONALD K. BROWN - Still around. Have 2 lovely littles ladies. Doing a good deal of traveling as Decoware Central Division Sales Mgr., Continental Con.

WEST HOOKER ex. '35 - Am an actor and also am connected in the business end of "show business." Have an interest in a nightclub, a summer theatre, and small interests in a couple of plays and one movie. Also am at present acting in "Command Decision" on Broadway. Mollie and I have a son 5 mos. old Grant. We're very happy!

SALLY KORRADY MARTIN - Daughter, Katherine Korraday Martin, born July 18, 1947.

PHOEBE MASSEY RYERSON - Our fourth child second son, George Wichersham Ryerson, Jr., born July 9th in time to let his parents assist at the Illinois children's Home and Aid Society party The Plantation Polka, and the Winnetka Community Nursery's Children's fair. It was a successful summer.

MARY RITCHIE THAYER - Son: Jonathan, aged 2. Daughter: Helen Elizabeth born in Sept. 1947. Husband teaching in English Dept. of U. of Cal., Berkeley.

Class of 1936

MARGOT WEBBE BARBER - Daughter Gail Hathaway, born Sept. 2nd.

NANCY BLAINE - Still working for the Textile Workers Union of America - CIO. Am at present taking a leave of absence until January 1 at home.

FRED DEPEYSTER, M. D. - Resident Surgeon Presbyterian Hospital, Associate Surgeon Cook County Hospital.

HUBERT E. HOWARD, JR. - Still mining coal. Dr. William Daughaday ('36) and wife located in St. Louis. Bill is connected with famous Barnes Hospital. Sammy Lynde and wife (Margy Burnham) are at St. Louis Country Day School.

JUD HURLBUT - I am going great guns in the pupin and fabric business in Los-Angeles. Just opened a new shop at 11962 Wilshire Blvd. known as Hurlbut-Rich & Co. All Winnetka seems to have moved West.

VIRGINIA CREIGH LIVINGSTON - Dave and I were married on Oct. 11, 1947 which makes me the luckiest girl in the world. We're both outsiders among proper Bostonians, but love it here and the door is open always to any Country Dayers.

ELLEN BULL O'BRIEN - Am teaching first grade at Northbrook School. Will be married December 20th to Forrest Sloan, Jr. who teaches sixth grade there.

DR. JOHN W. G. TUTHILL - Nothing new. Assistant resident in pediatrics at Babies Hospital, New York City until January 1949, when I go to Children's Hospital Boston.

SALLY CROWDER WAKEMAN - I have 2 daughters at the Park School and a very young son. Jinny Creigh has married a Bostonian and is living in town. Jack and Jammie Odell surprised us with a visit this week-end. It certainly is good to see N. S. C. D. S. people.

PHILIP C. STARR - Phil is getting his M. A. at University of Southern Cal. at Los Angeles. He expects to graduate from there, and will be married then.

(Mrs. Paul Starr)

HESTER REILLY WALD - My husband's business has just transferred him to Eugene, Oregon. From all reports it is a very nice town. The company has found a converted barn for us to live in. Sounds intriguing, but it is probably not like the ones in "House and Garden". I shall miss the night tennis games we have been having with Betty and Roger Butz.

EMILY HARMON WOLFF - Son, James Harmon Wolff, born October 14th.

JOHN E. WING, JR. - Sales Manager of Illinois Coil Spring Co. in Chicago since June '47.

Class of 1937

CLARENCE A. BURLEY (ex. '37) - We're expecting our first representative of the coming generation circa Dec. 10, 1947. I'm still copy editor with the Chicago Daily News.

MRS. ALEXANDER C. BELL - Summer in Desbarats, Ont. Oldest child, daughter

Chartis, had polio this fall, but has made a complete recovery, thank God. As for myself had para-typhoid fever at same time. Husband and son in good shape! Looking forward to Aspen this Christmas.

VIRGINIA BALLARD CHERRY - Happily situated in our own home in Northbrook. Kept busy by young Walt (age 5 1-2) and Peter (6 months).

ALICE GRAFF CHILDS - I'm very busy taking care of 3 children. Our youngest, Mary Elizabeth, was born June 28. Bobby is a year and a half, and Debbie is four and goes to Hubbard Woods School. I see a lot of North Shoreites.

WALTER CHRISTOPHER - Enjoying our new house in Park Ridge, Ill., and we now have grass! Aside from the house and Bruce, age 4 1-2, my time is occupied by the Chicago Lock Co. in the manufacture of padlocks and cylinder locks. The engineering end consumes most of the time.

ARTHUR M. COX, JR. - After a year of plumbers, plasters, carpenters, masons, and many others whose both hands are always in your pocket, our new functional home is ready. Bea, Carol, Eddie and I will move in about Dec. 10th. Visitors always welcome!

THOMAS L. ELIOT - Nov. 15th will fly to Tokyo, Japan to take civilian job in Dept. of the Army. Will work under Blaine Hoover in advising Japanese Gov't. in the establishment of a civil service system. I have agreed to stay for 2 yrs. at least. Maralee and my 2 little girls will join me next summer. Shades of the "Mikado" (G. & S.) !

NYDIA WIEBOLDT HOHF - Bob is still in the Army at MacGill Field, Tampa, Florida. Discharge coming in July. Son, Steven Matthew, born Sept. 25, 1947.

JAMES L. HOUGHTELING, JR. (ex '37) - As reported in a recent BULLETIN, I am at Harvard Law School, expect to finish May 1948. We have 2 boys, J. L. H., III (Larry) now 3 1-2, and Peter now almost 2. You probably know that Ham Smith is working with the Dennison Co. near Berlin, Mass. He's married and has 2 children.

HELEN WIEBOLDT HOXIE - Am kept busy with 3 children, 2 dogs, and a new home to say nothing of the husband. "Winn", Heide, and Steve are now 3 1-2, 2 1-2, 1 1-2, respectively so there is never a dull moment. We are living across the bay from San Francisco in Marin County and have seen no one, so please call on us if you are this way.

PRISCILLA PAYNE HURD - Very busy being Mother to my 7 mos. old son, George Hurd, Jr., and cook, maid, and scrubwoman and everything else that is a woman's privilege (dubious) when she becomes a wife. See a lot of Nat Ohland and her husband. And Marty Hambstark and her husband and two little girls.

CHARLES R. JACOBS (ex. '37) - Son, Randall W., born May, 1947.

MARC A. LAW, JR. Have been since shortly after release from the AAF, with the American Mineral Spirits Co., refiners and marketers of Petroleum Solvents and Hydrocarbons.

JOHN M. LEBOLT - Married last summer in Beverly Hills. Back at work after honeymoon in Hawaii.

OLIVIA LITTLE MEEKER (ex. '37) - Just completing our 2nd travel book for Random House, this time after a 10 mos. trip through the Caribbean area. Extracts from our 1st book "And Points South" recently appeared in The New Yorker and Theatre Arts. We hope to leave for Europe (British Isles and Scandinavian countries) in April. Does anyone know Boots Boyden's address?

NATALIE DECLERQUE OHLAND - We hope to be in Winnetka for Christmas. I think Priscilla Payne Hurd (ex. '37), who also lives in Bethlehem, will be in Glencoe for the holidays with her husband and their wonderful little boy now 7 mos. I still see Eddie Hicks occasionally when he comes here on business.

MAL RICHARDS WATSON - We have given up farming for the time being. Have bought a house in Northfield and are enjoying suburban life and old friends. Gillie is working for Streeter-Amet in Chicago.

Class of 1938

ANTHONY T. BOUSCAREN - Young Tony and Mike Bouscaren are working out with the seals and showing great promise. Their Mom and Pop continue to enjoy life in San Francisco. We had a grand vacation in Winnetka last August in spite of the tropical heat wave.

PETER A. DAMMANN - Married, with a vivacious 6-month daughter, Grace Meigs Dammann. Have a delightful 4-room apartment at the (Marshall Field) Town and Garden Apartments in Chicago. We are working hard at Northwestern Law School and are looking forward to finishing Feb. '49.

ANITA STRAUB DARROW - Our third child and second son was born last April, John Straub Darrow.

LAWRENCE HOWE, JR. - Hope to graduate from University of Chicago Law School in September, 1948. Second child born in May, 1947. Ellen Gardner Howe.

RICHARD EARLES JOHNSON - In State Dept. (Division of Foreign Activity Correlation, if that means anything) since Jan. 1, 1947. Night school at Georgetown Univ. Grad. School of Political Science.

MARY L. LAW - Working at Illinois Neuro-Psychiatric Institute as counselor for the student nurses. Also studying psychiatry.

ROBERT T. MACK, JR. - Active in working to awaken the American community to the need for world federal government. Chairman, University of Chicago Chapter of United World Federalists. Member of National Student Council of UWF, Member of Executive Board, Hyde Park Chapter, World Republic. Working toward PhD in International Relations under Professor Quincy Wright at U. of Chicago.

DOROTHY WARNER SILLS - Third child, 2nd daughter, born last Feb. 24th. Named Hilary Haskins.

BETTY KEATOR STAPECK - I was married on June 28th and now we're back in Minneapolis to live. We were lucky enough to find a little farm house to rent near Excelsior which we're having fun fixing up.

PETER WESTERVELT - Graduate study and teaching in Dept. of Physics at M.I.T. Dirck expected back from Okinawa about Christmas time, 1st Lt. Army Air Force. Jane continuing studies at Barnard College.

PRISCILLA BLACKETT YOUNG - Living in Chicago. Ran the Junior Provisional training course this fall. Doing script editing, and running our apartment.

Class of 1939

JOSEPH M. BARTON, JR. - Now employed as Insurance Agent for Massachusetts Mutual.

WILLIAM B. DAVIES - Enjoying life "in the country".

PEGGY BOYD DONALDSON - Finally graduated from college, Northwestern 1947. Second daughter, Holly, arrived Aug. 12th.

JOHAN W. ELIOT - Moved to nice white house a block from Andover Academy in a lovely neighborhood rather like Winnetka. I am still in the army, working at the Climatic Research Laboratory in Lawrence, Mass. Will be in Churchill, Manitoba in Feb. and March. Operation Windchill. Now have 2 children, Dorothy 21 mos., and Peter 6 mos.

ROGER D. FISHER - I expect to finish the Harvard Law School in the fall of '48. Dick Hart and Bob Graff are both here too.

ROBERT B. HARKNESS - Copywriter at H. Walter Thompson Company.

MARGARET HOUGHTELING NEUSTADT - Married on Nov. 15th to Jack Neustadt. He is doing graduate work in Baltimore at Johns Hopkins so we will be living there for the next few years.

JOHN W. RANKIN - Son born Oct. 1947 M.B.A. from Harvard Grad. School of Business September 1947.

LYDIA ELLIOTT SCWEPPE - Just moved to Rochester, Minnesota where Johnny has a 3 year fellowship at the Mayo Clinic. This is a wonderful place and we both love it. One daughter, Leigh born January, 1947.

JAMES WIEBOLDT - Graduated from Northwestern this summer. Am now working for the Seismograph Service Corporation in Oklahoma and Texas.

BARBARA WRIGHT - Doing radio script work in San Diego, and beachcombing. Jean Mathiessen Johnson is living in Sweden with Paul and their 2 children.

Class of 1940

LANGDON LAWS BARBER - We have bought a house on Lawndale Ave., in Evanston, and plan to move in November 21.

JOHN N. BINGHAM - Nothing newsworthy to report. Last 12 mos. have covered a total of 7479 miles, 6925 by train and 554 on foot, going from home to work each day and spent an aggregate of 2 weeks, 10 hrs., and 15 min. doing so. For consolation I reflect that the sages of all countries and all times have told us that the only true events are interior.

BETTY CONWAY - No new news yet, expect that I have changed jobs, from Carleton College to Rockford College. See Mary Cahn ('47) every day. Enjoy the Bulletin very much, and take this opportunity to say "hello" to all those I haven't seen in a long time.

SALLY GLASER DEWEY - Hartley Fiske Dewey born November, 1947.

CATRYNIA NEVIUS HATTON - Not much news. Saw Connie Wallace who drove through here not long ago. See Joan Glaser Menoher all the time and her new baby girl, Lynn, born October, 1947.

NANCY SCRIBNER KIRK - See Francis Wilson almost every week-end now that he is teaching at Episcopal Academy here in Philly. He is coaching the 105 lb. team in football and incidently teaching Math. Am still living in the same garage apartment which we will be sharing with new baby (number 2) in January.

HAL LOWTHER - Daughter born Nov. 1, 1946.

ZANNE BOYNTON MEYERS - Now permanent resident of Winnetka since we bought home here.

SALLIE ELLEN WELSH - Married Frank Wellington Collidge, Jr. on 19 Sept. Frank grew up in Grosse Pointe, Mich., but is working in Chicago, so we are ensconced in a wee Evanston apartment at present.

ROBERT B. WILCOX - I'm midway in my 2nd year at Michigan Law, expecting to finish in January 1949 and to practice in Chicago. I haven't seen any other North Shorites in a coon's age, and haven't done anything of a newsworthy nature, the struggle with the law and the weather being what it is.

Class of 1941

VIRGINIA S. DEANE (ex. '41) - Happily ensconced in an apartment, at long last. I share it with a Smith classmate who teaches art in Lower School. My history and English classes at N.S.C.D.S. all keep me busy. Betsy Deane, ex. '43, graduated from Smith in June, and is looking for a job in photography.

BARBARA DICK - Getting an M.A. in Music at Colorado College.

EVELYN COLLIDGE - Announced engagement to Warren Howe, July 25th. Being married January 3rd. Warren is engaged in business in Chicago so we plan to live around here for awhile.

CHERRY BOYD MCNITT - An active sort of Fall. Have been working since last summer for a Real Estate Agency, love it and trying to dig up a few "sleepers" for our friends. Time out, however, for participation with the North Shore Hockey Association, bullying again for North Shore. Little bit of time is spent in the kitchen at 1138 Maple Avenue.

MARILYN MORSE - Married to Robert Dana Brown.

THOMAS W. STERN - Graduated from the U. of Chicago with a B. S. degree in June. Spent summer in Kansas on geophysical crew prospecting for oil. At present continuing study of petroleum geology at the U. of Texas, working for M.S. degree.

Class of 1942

DOROTHY FARRINGTON AISHTON - We became the proud parents of a baby daughter April 20, 1947. Her name is Mary Suzan. Moved to a garage apt. in Lake Forest June 15th. Expect to remain here a year or so.

ELEANOR METCALF CHILDS - Married Sept. 20 to Bob Childs. Establishing home in Glenview.

JOYA BOVINGTON COX - Art is now on the International Relations staff of the Brookings Institution. We've bought a house and are expecting an addition to the family in May.

SAMUEL W. EARLE - Not much news. I am still working here as an engineer for Haynes Stellite Co. Expect to get my masters degree in Industrial Engineering in Feb. 1948. Hope to see everyone at Christmas time. Haven't seen anyone except my sister, Elsie Earle Lawson. Guess I just don't get around.

JEAN FREILER - Living in N. Y. C. at 26 East 81st Street.

ROBERT H. MCCULLOCH - First year at Northwestern Law School.

LIZ PRICE - Teaching 9th and 10th grade English at Mrs. Orville Green's school, Sunset Hill, in Kansas City.

SHIRLEY MAYER RUWITCH - Got married August 2nd of this year. Went to California for 3 weeks on our honeymoon, and when we came back went right out to our home in Northbrook. Married life is wonderful.

RICHARD STARR - Dick has stayed in the Navy and is at the moment at Sand's Point where Merritt and Harriet are living. (Mrs. Eliz. Starr)

KARL WAGNER - Married to Mary Jean Hayes of Palo Alto, Calif. on 26th of Dec., 1947. Have one year to go at Harvard, and then Business School.

CONNIE WALLACE - Working part time on the switchboard at North Shore. Expect to enter Secretarial School in Feb.

Class of 1943

SAMUEL ADAMS - At Harvard. Lowell House J-21.

JOAN MONROE ARMOUR - Daughter born Oct. 12, 1947 at Evanston Hospital, Joan Elizabeth Armour.

GWENYTH BINGHAM - I am at present the only unsuccessful member of a talented group sharing a wonderful new apartment. One of my family is Diane Holliday. Still pavement pounding along Broadway. In a show doing a benefit performance in New Jersey. Recently returned from Summer Stock. Dancing with Martha Graham etc.

KENDALL COX - Transferred from Black Mountain to Oberlin. Bain Murray, Bill Bartholomay, Dave Burgoon and John Yeomans are also here.

DEBORAH DAUGHADAY - Working as social service worker in the Cleveland Day Nursery Association.

FRANK FISHER - Continuing studies at Harvard.

JOHN K. GALLOWAY - Still going to Ag. school at Wisconsin U. Am a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity. Got married in August to Elsa Jean Reid of Evergreen, Colo. It's wonderful.

ANN S. GREGORY - I'm now living in the fair city of Rochester, Minn., and working as a Lab. assistant in the Biophysics division of the Mayo Clinic. I love the town and my work.

WILLIAM JACOBS - I graduate (finally) from Northwestern in December, and I may enter the Graduate School. I expect to play basketball in the Evanston leagues again this winter.

ROBERT M. JOHNSON - Married June 14th to Katrina Wolcott '43. I'm on staff of THE HOTEL MONTHLY in Chicago. Katrina, in between jobs is in Junior League Childrens' Theatre.

ANN WILCOX JONES - Ed Kuh and wife also living here in barracks. We both see Buddy Wilson, Bob Taylor, and Chuck Brashears around the campus. I'm working for Frederick L. Schuman in a secretarial capacity.

NANCY KOSTBADE - My engagement to James C. Park of Santa Ynez and Berkeley was announced in October. The wedding will take place in February "between semesters", and Jim and I will live in Davis while he finishes at U. of Cal. Agricultural College. It will be ranch life for both of us after that!

IDAMAE SCHULZE METHEANY - Married on June 27th and think married life is perfect. Love housekeeping and domesticity in general! 'Tis a grand life!

BOB TAYLOR - I'm working hard. Sherman was right. Am a junior at Williams. (me, not Sherman.)

Class of 1944

NANCY ANDERSON - I am going to Northern Illinois State Teachers College at Dekalb, Ill. This is my first year and I am having alot of fun.

VIRGINIA BENSINGER SONNENSCHIEIN - Was married June 21st to Hugo Sonnenschein, Jr., and we are living in a garage apartment in Highland Park.

ALICE E. BUTZ - Announced engagement to William G. Moir of Schenectady, N. Y. Marriage early in March. Am attending the Northwestern Music School after having 3 years at Wellesley.

NANCY DICK - Senior at Smith.

CAROL YEOMANS FARWELL - Married Sept. 6th. Still studying French at Chicago. Husband in Law School, M. A. and J. D. far in future.

MARY-STEWART GALLOWAY - Engagement to Richard M. Weiser of Holyoke, Mass., announced in Sept. To be married Dec. 30. Will live in Ithaca, N.Y. while Mr. Weiser finishes at Cornell University.

RICHARD D. GOLDEN - Am now enjoying the intellectual atmosphere of the University of Chicago. As of yet I have not reformed R. M. Hutchins. I would like to hear more about N.S.C.D.S.

CHARLOTTE HANNAFFORD - Senior at Sarah Lawrence.

LINDSAY HARPER - After a wonderful junior year in Mexico, I am back at Bryn Mawr hoping to graduate in June. Am majoring in Spanish.

ISABEL LINDSAY - Senior, art major, at Wheaton College, Norton, Mass. President of Athletic Association.

MARGERY LLOYD - Assistant kindergarten teacher at Hubbard Woods School, Winnetka, and half day student at National College of Education.

JOAN RILEY - Married to Carl Buehler.

MARCIA TURNER (ex. '44) - Am teaching at Crow Island School. Plan to graduate from National College in June.

ROSANNA WELSH - Still plodding through Senior at Mills in glorious California, and having a riotous time.

LEE WILCOX - Gwen Bingham, Diane Holliday, and I are career girls in N.Y.C., Gwen and I in the theatre, Diane has a job. Graduated from Vassar in June, was on the staff of a summer theatre where I sewed, hammered, ran and emoted. Now for the STAGE.

Class of 1945

BROOK BALLARD - Just returned to college at The Principia College at Elsau, Ill., and am commencing my Sophomore year after spending 18 mos. in the Army serving much of that time in the Philippines. After some study on my own on history in Far East, I am majoring in that field at college.

VIRGINIA CLARK - I've transferred from Wheaton College in Mass. to Northwestern. I'm a pledge member of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

MARY FREILER ex. '45 - At Chamberlain Retail School.

MORTON D. HULL - Expect to be a soph. here at Harvard before long. See plenty of North Shore faces around the yard, the newest being Frank Dunbaugh and Alan Sweetzer. A couple of weeks ago there was quite a contingent of old grads in Frank Burnham's room down at that school in New Haven.

FRANCIS MACY - Spent an extremely interesting summer in Washington mingling with the famous and infamous in my attempt to find what makes them and the government tick. Am now back at Wesleyan (Middletown, Conn.) for my third year, where I am majoring in government and am having a stimulating and enjoyable time. Music and dramatics do much to fill the almost non-existent idle hours. Wish I saw more N.S.C.D.ers.

HARRIET P. PLOTKIN - I have graduated from Briar Cliff Junior College in June of 1947. Am now at School of Speech at Northwestern. Majoring in Acting and Radio. Enjoy my work.

DAVE SHAPIRO - Joined the ranks of Sgt. yesterday. It's really ego bloating the way the new recruits address you reverently as Sgt. with trembling voices. Still at Fort Dix and find it interesting. Saw the Harvard-Yale game and met the Hull boys there. Expect to reenter Harvard next fall.

TIM WALLACE - Dave Shapiro deserts the Army, coming up here fairly often. Saw Garf and Dan, loose from the confines of that institution they go to. Both look swell.

Class of 1946

CONNIE CHADWELL -

PHYL BABB - Connie and I are working harder than ever this year, but having even more fun. Have seen most of the North Shore contingent at Wellesley and Pine Manor. Hope to get back soon and see N. S. C. D. S.

ERNEST BENKERT - Was discharged from the Army around Thanksgiving. Ken Eddy on his way home to be discharged also. We probably won't start college until next fall.

W. LANG CARROLL - Tod* Wallace, Duke Templeton, Don Palmer and myself had a little get together at the Brown game. Work is harder this year than last since all courses are required. Expect Hull boys down in New Haven to celebrate Yale victory over Harvard.

JEANNETTE PARKER DEHLINGER - One daughter, Harriet Ann, born July 16, 1947.

DEEDEE GREGORY - Life right now is full of midsemester quizzes and papers, and everything is beginning to pile up. I see Dixie Greeley occasionally as we scurry about campus. Just heard that Judi Campbell is class president at Sweet Briar.

CHARLES F. GREY - One of 22 students from Evanston at Denison University. Living at Curtis Hall. Pledged S.A.E.

ZAN GRISELLE - Having spent a year at Stephens College in Missouri, I'm now across the country at the Boston School of Occupational Therapy. Part of my course is learning the fine arts of basketry, cord knotting, book binding, and chip carving. North Shore was never like this!

ANITA MELOHN - Have come to the conclusion that Sophomore studies are more difficult than those of Freshman year! New York is as "vogueish" as ever, and the subways just as confusing, but I love every minute of it.

SUE STERN - Majoring in Sociology up at Bennington. Mary Hooker only other N. S. person around here. Niece now in 3rd grade at Girls Latin School.

Class of 1947

CHUCK BACON - Study at Colorado College harder by far than at N.S.C.D.S., but no grind. Met all sorts of Chicago, Wilmette, Evanston, Winnetka, Lake Forest people. Dick Grater, Pat Hollister, Ken Brown, Steve Hord, etc. Colorado Springs has wonderful climate, there has been skiing since Oct., but it is still warm and sunny. Also have not seen Purp.

MARY JANE CARLSON - Am rooming with Pat Patterson ('47) here at Pine Manor. North Shore is well represented this year, in fact it's like old home week. Good luck to all.

BEN HARPER - Duke University.

RALPH HARPER - Colgate University.

MARION A. KIMBALL - Binky and I are having a wonderful time at Vassar College.

BARBARA LEE LAROCHELLE - At school in Lausanne, Switzerland. Chateau Brillant Mont is name of school.

DONALD PALMER - Rooming with Duke Templeton (1947) at Brown. Saw W. Carroll at Yale. Saw many of the girls of the class of '47 at Pine Manor and Wellesley. Find work hard at college.

PETER SIECK - I'm struggling through Tech with moderate success. I haven't run into any other North Shorites, mainly because I haven't had time. They work you hard here, and no mistake.

WENDY SMITH - I'm still at Wellesley!

ROBERT A. WALLER - At present I am attending Palos Verdes College, Rolling Hills, Calif. I am head of the Grounds Improvement Comm., and Editor of the school year book. John Howard (graduate) is teaching botany and French here.
